

DECEMBER 29

When it comes to empathy, kindness, good deeds
You have all the knowledge that anyone needs.
The list that you made yesterday of kind stuff
Will help so many people when life feels too tough.
Today you should pick out one action you wrote
And put it to action. Take a vote
With your folks on the best one for today
And then go ahead and get on your way.

DECEMBER 30

Let's read a favorite book together. Then, let's put on a play. Can we become the characters from the book?

Does this book remind you of anything else you've read or seen?

Would this book make a good movie? If you were directing it, what would you change?

DECEMBER 31

Today is our last day together, my friend,
I can hardly believe we've come to the end!
It's been such an honor to stay with you here
And when I think of you, I will grin ear-to-ear.
Have a grand year, and don't you lose sight
Of all we have worked on together, alright?
Think often of others and how they might feel,
Give compliments often, and always with zeal.
Stand up for people less lucky than you
And try hard to see life from their point-of-view.
You're such a kind person and I'll miss you so much,
Although I am leaving, let's keep in touch.
