

DECEMBER 9

Let's read a favorite book together. Then, let's put on a play. Can we become the characters from the book?

If you could change one thing about the story, what would you change?

If you could write the next chapter, what would happen?

DECEMBER 10

When I think of winter, I think of deep snow,
the moon's haloed glow,
and a Christmas light show.

If I painted winter, I'd use white and blue,
And some red and green, too.
It would show you the winter I always knew.

Let's look at how artists paint their winters. What do they choose to show us?

DECEMBER 11

When I'm at home, I live outdoors
And I find while I'm here, I miss it.
Don't get me wrong, you I adore,
But that sadness—I can't just dismiss it.
Let's find a time to get outside,
Where the air is fresh and the sky is wide.

DECEMBER 12

Thank you for taking me on an adventure yesterday!

Now that we've had some time to enjoy nature, let's reminisce. What are the things you enjoyed the most yesterday?

What makes nature wonderful?

What is different right now from the outside world during other seasons?
